Psalm 68: You Have Made a Home for the Poor

Refrain

Verses

1. Your presence all around them, the just proclaim your glory;
Laughing, dancing, singing, they revel in your story.
O let us sing our praises! God's name inspire our song,
For God is ever near us, let our praise be loud and long.
2. A parent to the orphan, the widow's strong defender,
This is how our God is, both terrible and tender.
With mercy for the lowly, God builds for them a home,
To lead them into freedom in a land to call their own.
3. Upon a thirsty nation, you rained refreshing rain,
And when your own were starving, you gave them life again.
So where there once was nothing, a nation formed and grew;
A home at last, a country vast the poor received from you.

PSALM 113: PRAISE THE LORD

M. D. Ridge

1. O praise the works of the Lord!
Praise the name of the Lord, our God!
East to west, sunrise to sunset,
blest be the name of the Lord!
2. High over all the nations,
our God in glory shines,
from blinding glory bending
to care for earth below:
who is like the Lord, our God!
3. He lifts the poor from the dust,
raising the lowly to lofty thrones,
giving them children, hope for the future.
Blest be the name of the Lord!

is justice for the oppressed.
The Lord gives food to the hungry;
the Lord sets captives free.

Forever the Lord will reign, O Zion, age on age your God.
